

English Proficiency

(1) Candidates whose lateral transfer applications are accepted from outside AGU; They must document their English language proficiency in accordance with the provisions of our University's Undergraduate Education, Teaching and Examination Regulation and our University's School of Foreign Languages English Preparatory Program Education, Teaching and Examination Directive.

* Click here for the English Preparatory Program Education, Teaching and Examination Guidelines of our University's School of Foreign Languages.

(2) Candidates who cannot document their English language proficiency by the end of the application period will receive "Conditional Acceptance" if they meet the application requirements. Candidates who are conditionally accepted will be registered to the university if they pass the AGÜ İMS exam, which will be held before the lateral transfer registration date. (Added by Senate Resolution No. 2025.40.04 dated 17.12.2025)

(3) Candidates whose lateral transfer applications are accepted with the central placement score are registered to the university and accepted to the English Preparatory class, if they have not received two years of preparatory education in the program they were previously enrolled in. Candidates who have received one year of preparatory training are given another year of preparatory training.